

DIGESTS

How to Locate a Case Using a Digest

The Law Library has two sets of West Digests in print format (now published by Thomson Reuters):

The United States Supreme Court Digest, used to locate United States Supreme Court cases, is located in Compact Shelving next to the Supreme Court Reporter, at KF 101 .1 U55. Like all digests, each volume in the set is updated with pocket parts.

West's California Digest, located in Row C-9 of Compact Shelving at KFC 57 .W47, is used to locate California Supreme Court and California Appellate Court cases.

Digests are arranged alphabetically by topic. Examples of the approximately 400 topics are: Banks and Banking, Franchises, Insurance, Libel and Slander, Partnership, Schools, and Trade Regulation.

Each topic is divided into subtopics known as "key numbers." A complete list of topic headings is available in the front of each digest volume. A complete list of key numbers is available at the beginning of each topic. A Quick Reference Guide to West Key Number System is available online west.thomson.com/documentation/westlaw/wlawdoc/wlres/keynmb06.pdf.

Locate a topic and key number that interests you by scanning the list of topic headings and key numbers or by using the Descriptive Word Index at the end of each set of digests.

West also publishes West's Analysis of American Law, which is a complete guide to the topic and key number system. This is available at the Reference Desk KF 141 .W485.

Read the case summaries that are listed under each topical key number. A case citation follows each summary. This citation will be composed of a volume number, an abbreviation that indicates the "reporter," or series of books that contains the case you need, and the page where your case begins. Some cases can be found in more than one reporter; therefore more than one citation may be listed, e.g., "6 Cal. App.3d 675; 86 Cal. Rptr. 294."

See the list of abbreviations and locations of case reporters on the last page to locate the reporter that contains your case.

If you have the name of a case and the jurisdiction in which it was decided, you can find the citation to your case using the Table of Cases volume of the digest covering that jurisdiction. These volumes are located at the end of the set.

1. How to Locate a Case Using Topic and Key Number System in Westlaw

Use Westlaw to locate cases in any jurisdiction with West's topical and Key number system. The Law Library's subscription to Westlaw is available on all public computers. Click on Westlaw on any desktop, and follow these steps:

>>Home >>Law 101

- Click on West Key Number System. The next page will display the list of topics and topic numbers.
- Roll your cursor over the topic to display a small “i” (stands for information). Click on the “i” to see a list subjects included.
- Click on the topic to display a detailed list of key numbers and subtopics.

- When you click on a key number, the key number and topic will appear in the search field at the top of the screen.
- The default jurisdiction is California and will retrieve California cases. Other jurisdictions may be selected by clicking on the link in the CA (state and federal) box.

>>Home >>Law 101

➤ A search will retrieve a list of cases for the key number and jurisdiction selected.
