

Clearing Probate Calendar Notes for Guardianship or Conservatorship

Before a guardianship or conservatorship is granted, the court holds a hearing. In Sacramento, about 3 weeks before the hearing, the court posts “calendar notes” (also called “probate notes” or “probate calendar notes”) in the online case file. These contain a list of papers and information that are missing, so that the petitioner can make sure the file is complete before the hearing. (Sacramento County Superior Court Local Rule 4.02 (<https://www.saccourt.ca.gov/local-rules/docs/chapter-04.pdf>)).

This process will be different, or may not exist, in other county probate courts.
