

Discovery: Requests for Admission

Requests for admission are used to ask another party to admit that certain facts are true, or that certain documents are authentic. If admitted as true or authentic, these facts and documents do not need to be proven or authenticated at trial. This helps narrow the scope of controversy in the case, making trials quicker and less expensive.

Templates and Forms

Ideally, the facts you need to win your case are undisputed, and the other side will admit that these facts are true. If all the key facts are admitted or deemed true, you may be able to file a motion asking the judge to issue a judgment in your favor, because there are no factual issues to be tried.

Jury instructions are a good way to know what facts you will need to prove in order for you to win your case. The California Civil Jury Instructions (CACI) are available for free online (<http://www.courts.ca.gov/partners/juryinstructions.htm>). If you find the jury instructions appropriate to your case, you will have a list of the facts each side must establish to win the case. For more information, see our guide on Jury Instructions (https://www.saclaw.org/resource_library/jury-instructions/).

If the responding party fails to respond to your Request for Admission, your remedy is to ask the court to deem each of the facts true, so be sure to phrase your requests so that, if a fact is deemed true, it helps your case. You don't want to ask the court to deem facts true that are detrimental to your case!

California law places strict limits on the number of discovery requests a party can make. In a limited civil case (cases less than $25,000, or $35,000 if filed after Jan. 1, 2024) you may ask each party only 35 questions total, whether they are form interrogatories, special interrogatories, requests for admission, or requests for production of documents. Keep this limit in mind when writing your requests, to ensure that you are able to obtain all the information you'll need for your case. If you ask the other party to admit 35 facts, you will not be able to serve any interrogatories or request any documents.

If you determine that you cannot obtain all the necessary information in 35 requests, the parties must either agree to additional discovery, or the party requiring the additional discovery must file a motion with the court asking for permission to propound more discovery requests. See the sources listed at the end of this Guide for more information.

In an unlimited civil case (cases over $25,000, or $35,000 if filed after Jan. 1, 2024), each party may make 35 requests for admission. Any number over 35 may be asked if the request contains a declaration of necessity, a sworn statement in which the party or attorney declares under penalty of perjury that additional discovery is required. The form of this declaration can be found in California Code of Civil Procedure \(CCP\) § 2033.050 (http://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/faces/codes_displaySection.xhtml?lawCode=CCP§ionNum=2033.050).

To keep within these limits, you may be tempted to try to squeeze as much as you can into each fact you wish admitted. Be careful in doing this; CCP § 2033.060 (http://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/faces/codes_displaySection.xhtml?lawCode=CCP§ionNum=2033.060) prohibits parties from writing requests that include multiple facts, compound questions, or subparts.

Step-by-Step Instructions

1. Complete the Necessary Forms

The Judicial Council form commonly used in this procedure is:

- Requests for Admission \(DISC-020\) (<http://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/disc020.pdf>)

The Requests for Admission (DISC-020) serves as a cover sheet, and includes legally required language and important instructions for the responding party. You must also attach your requests for admission, listing the facts you wish the responding party to admit are true. Your requests must be written on pleading paper; you may download blank pleading paper from this link:

- Blank Pleading Paper (https://www.saclaw.org/resource_library/pleading-paper-blank-28-line-template/)

Each request must be numbered sequentially. Requests must be clear and concise, and request that the party admit a single fact. Do not include multiple facts in a single request, and do not use compound questions or subparts. Instructions for completing the Requests for Admission (DISC-020) and a sample attached pleading are at the end of this Guide.

2. Make Copies

Make one photocopy for each party (other than you) in the case. Create a packet for each party, with Requests for Admission (DISC-020) and all attachments stapled together.

3. Have Your Requests Served

A photocopy of your request must be served on the attorney for the responding party or directly to the responding party if he or she is self-represented (in pro per). Courtesy copies should be served on all other attorneys or self-represented parties in the case. Service may be completed by mail, by a person over the age of 18 who is not a party to the case. The person serving your requests must complete a Proof of Service by First Class Mail \(POS-030\) (<http://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/pos030.pdf>). For more information, see our guide on Proof of Service by Mail (https://www.saclaw.org/resource_library/serving-documents-by-mail/).

4. Retain Your Originals

The original Requests for Admission (DISC-020), attached pleading(s), and signed Proof of Service (POS-030) should be retained for your records. If the other party does not respond to your requests, you may use these documents to support a motion to have the court deem the facts true. For more information, see our guide on Motions to Deem Facts Admitted (https://www.saclaw.org/resource_library/motion-to-deem-facts-admitted/).

INSTRUCTIONS

Requests for admission are written requests by a party to an action requiring that the other party admit or deny the truth of certain facts or the genuineness of certain documents. For more information, see Code of Civil Procedure, sections 437.01 through 437.09, and the Rules of Court, sections 4.51 through 4.59. For more information, see Code of Civil Procedure, sections 437.01 through 437.09, and the Rules of Court, sections 4.51 through 4.59. For more information, see Code of Civil Procedure, sections 437.01 through 437.09, and the Rules of Court, sections 4.51 through 4.59.

The requesting party should consider carefully whether to admit or deny the truth of facts or the genuineness of documents. With limited exceptions, the answering party will not be allowed to change an answer to a request for admission. There may be penalties if an answering party fails to admit the truth of any fact or the genuineness of any document when requested to do so and the requesting party can prove that the fact or document is true or genuine. These penalties may include, among other things, payment of costs and attorney's fees. If the answering party fails to respond to each request for admission within the time specified, the answering party may be deemed to have admitted the truth of the facts or the genuineness of the documents in issue. These penalties may include, among other things, payment of costs and attorney's fees. Answers to Requests for Admission must be given under oath. The answering party should use the following language at the end of the response:

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing answers are true and correct.

(DATE) (SIGNATURE)

These instructions are only a summary and are not intended to provide complete information about requests for admission. This Requests for Admission form does not change existing law relating to requests for admissions, nor does it affect an answering party's right to assert any privilege or to make any objection.

If you checked "Genuineness of Documents" and the box for paragraph 2 on the DISC-020 form, label a page "Attachment 2."

Each request must be consecutively numbered. Do not duplicate any numbers used in another attachment. If you asked for admissions in a separate attachment, you may want to label these requests more descriptively, (e.g., "Request for Genuineness of Documents No. 1"), to avoid confusion in the responses.

Identify each document you wish the other side to admit is genuine. Each request must be for a single document; do not include compound requests or subparts. If you find that you are using "and," "or," or lots of commas or semi-colons, your request probably needs to be re-phrased. Each document must be attached as an Exhibit.

It is often easiest to phrase each request as "Admit that..." This can help ensure that you are asking the other party to admit or deny a fact, rather than to provide new information.

If a party admits that a document is genuine, the genuineness of that document does not need to be proven at trial, but the facts stated in the document are not established. For example, admitting a contract is genuine does not admit that the clauses of the contract are enforceable, or admitting that a written statement by a person is a genuine copy of that statement does not admit that the facts in the statement are true.

When attaching exhibits, place a sheet of pleading paper with "Exhibit A" (or "B," or however the Exhibit is identified) typed near the bottom in front of each exhibit.
