DECLARATION

(This form must be attached to another form or court paper before it can be filed in court.)

At the time of my conviction in 2005, I was only 19 years old, I had dropped out of high school, and was not working. I had too much time on my hands and was hanging out with people who were a bad influence. This led me to getting in trouble.

After the birth of my daughter in 2007, I realized that I needed to get my life back on track, so that I could support her. With the help of my parents, I got my GED, and enrolled at UniTech to study Automotive Technology. I worked part time at an auto parts store while going to school part time, so I could support my daughter and help my parents with bills, since they were letting me stay with them. I finished my schooling in January 2011. Since then, I've been trying to find full time work as an Automotive Technician or Smog Technician, but am having a hard time. There are not a lot of jobs available right now, and having a conviction on my record puts me at a disadvantage against other applicants.

In your own words, tell the court why you want to expunge your conviction. Consider including information like:

- Your plans for the future;
- The reasons you offended, and how your life is different today than it was when you offended;
- How the conviction has hurt your employment chances;
- If you have received any training or education since your conviction;
- Any occurrence in your life that changed how you interact with your community; and
- Any 12-step or religious affiliations you have.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

b.  only the following convictions or pleas for deferred entry of judgment in the above-entitled action (specify charges and date of conviction or plea for deferred entry of judgment):

LEAVE THE REST OF THIS FORM BLANK!
The judge will complete this form after reviewing your petition.

5.  In granting this order under the provisions of Penal Code section 1203.49, the court finds that the petitioner was a victim of human trafficking when petitioner committed the crime.
a. The court orders (check one):
(1)  the relief described in section 1203.4.
(2)  the relief described in section 1203.4, with the following exceptions (specify):
b. The Department of Justice is hereby notified that petitioner was a victim of human trafficking when petitioner committed the crime, and notified of the relief ordered.

6. If this order is granted under the provisions of Penal Code section 1203.4, 1203.41, or 1203.42,
a. the petitioner is required to disclose the above conviction in response to any direct question contained in any questionnaire or application for public office, or for licensure by any state or local agency (or, under Penal Code section 1203.41, for licensure by a federally recognized tribe or for enrollment as a provider of in-home supportive services and "waiver personal care services" (see Welf. & Inst. Code, §§ 12300-12318, 14132.95, 14132.952, 14132.956, 14132.97)), or for contracting with the California State Lottery Commission; and
b. dismissal of the conviction does not automatically relieve petitioner from the requirement to register as a sex offender. (See, e.g., Pen. Code, § 290.5.)

7. If this order is granted under the provisions of Penal Code section 1203.4, 1203.4a, 1203.41, 1203.42, or 1203.49, the petitioner is released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense except as provided in Penal Code sections 29800 and 29900 (formerly sections 12021 and 12021.1) and Vehicle Code section 13555. In any subsequent prosecution of the petitioner for any other offense, the prior conviction may be pleaded and proved and shall have the same effect as if probation had not been granted or the accusation or information dismissed. The dismissal does not permit a person to own, possess, or have in their control a firearm if prevented by Penal Code section 29800 or 29900 (formerly sections 12021 and 12021.1). Dismissal of a conviction does not permit a person prohibited from holding public office as a result of that conviction to hold public office.

8. Dismissal under Penal Code section 1203.4 or 1203.4a does not release petitioner from the terms and conditions of any unexpired criminal protective order issued under Penal Code section 136.2(i)(1), 273.5(j), 368(f), or 646.9(k).

9. In addition, as required by Penal Code section 299(f), relief under Penal Code section 17(b), 17(d)(2), 1203.4, 1203.4a, 1203.41, 1203.42, or 1203.49 does not release petitioner from the separate administrative duty to provide specimens, samples, or print impressions under the DNA and Forensic Identification Database and Data Bank Act (Pen. Code, § 295 et seq.) if petitioner was found guilty by a trier of fact, not guilty by reason of insanity, or pled no contest to a qualifying offense as defined in Penal Code section 296(a).

10. The basis for an order of dismissal granted under the provisions of Penal Code section 1203.43 is the invalidity of petitioner's prior plea due to misinformation in former Penal Code section 1000.4 regarding the actual consequences of making a plea and successful completion of a deferred entry of judgment program.

11. Notice: Except as provided in Penal Code section 1203.425(a)(4), if this order is granted under Penal Code section 1203.4, 1203.4a, 1203.41, or 1203.42, the court must not disclose information concerning a conviction granted relief to any person or entity, in any format, except to the person whose conviction was granted relief or to a criminal justice agency.
