

Understanding the Confidential Name Change Process in Sacramento

The law provides confidentiality for a petitioner seeking a name change who is a participant in the Secretary of State's confidential address program, Safe at Home, under California Government Code §6205 et seq (https://leginfo.ca.gov/faces/codes_displayText.xhtml?lawCode=GOV&division=7.&title=1.&part=&chapter=3.1.&article=), and who asserts reasons for a name change that include:

- Seeking to avoid domestic violence
- Seeking to avoid stalking
- Filing as, or on behalf of, a victim of sexual assault.

One of these reasons must be stated in the papers filed with the Petition for Change of Name. If you do not qualify for a confidential name change, use our guide Understanding the Name Change Process in Sacramento (https://saclaw.org/resource_library/understanding-the-name-change-process-in-sacramento/).

Before You File in Court

Enroll in the Secretary of State's Safe at Home program. Then, submit an "Intent to Change Name" form (provided by the Safe at Home program) listing your desired new name. Safe at Home will issue you "Court Letters" authorizing the change. You must include these when filing in court. This must be done before filing in court.

Warning! Changing your name confidentially can make it harder to apply for benefits or other government services. The Secretary of State's Office recommends that you contact a lawyer before proceeding with the confidential name change process.

If you are requesting a name change because of a Code of Civil Procedure

(https://leginfo.ca.gov/faces/codes_displaySection.xhtml?lawCode=CCP§ionNum=1277.), and are enrolled in the Safe at Home program, you can apply for a confidential name change. Your court documents will not show the new name, to protect you from discovery.

However, the case itself can be found by searching your old name. If your stalker or abuser finds it, they will know that you changed your name (but not your new name) and that you live in Sacramento County. If you believe this will help them find you, you can ask that your entire case be "under seal," or hidden. You will need to file extra documents explaining exactly why a public record will put you in extra danger.

If you request to file under seal, and the judge refuses, the court will send the papers back without starting a case, and you can choose whether to file a standard confidential name change instead.

Step-by-Step Instructions

1. Become a Participant in the Safe At Home Program

Before requesting a confidential name change, you must first register with the California Safe at Home program (<http://www.sos.ca.gov/registries/safe-home>) by applying to an enrolling agency. The Safe at Home program provides anonymous mailing addresses to people escaping the circumstance listed in CCP § 1277 (b)(2), as well as reproductive health care workers and public health officials.

You can find a local enrolling agency listing by calling the Safe at Home program directly at (877) 322-5227 or checking the Secretary of State's Safe at Home website (<http://www.sos.ca.gov/registries/safe-home/where-find-enrolling-agency>).

2. Request and File a Notice of Intent of Name Change with Safe at Home

Obtain, complete and file a Confidential Intent of Name Change (CINC) form with the Safe at Home program. This form lists both the old and new name of the participant and is kept confidential at the Secretary of State's office.

You must contact Safe at Home (877-322-5227) to request this form. It is not available on the internet and the Law Library does not have them.

Once you file the Notice of Intent of Name Change with the Safe at Home program, the program will send you "Court Letters" verifying that you did so. These must be turned in to the court with your name change forms. They inform the court that the Safe at Home program has authorized the confidential name change.

3. Decide Whether to File Under Seal

Every confidential name change protects your new name from public disclosure. But in some cases, just knowing that you changed your name and that you lived in Sacramento can help your abuser search for you.

If so, you can ask the judge for permission to file under seal. If the judge approves, the entire case will be confidential, meaning the public cannot locate your name change at all.

In the U.S., court records are supposed to be public. So if you want your court records sealed, you must file an extra set of documents requesting permission. You must convince the judge that the threat to your safety is so grave that it outweighs the importance of keeping records open to the public.

This can slow the process down, especially if the judge refuses permission. If that happens, the court clerk sends back all the paperwork back to you, so you can decide whether you want to file the name change petition anyway. (It still will not list your new name).

4. Prepare Your Confidential Name Change Petition Forms

Once you receive the letter from the Secretary of State confirming participation in the Safe at Home program, you can complete and file the required court forms.

4a. Prepare the forms

In Sacramento, download the Petition for Change of Name Under the Address Confidentiality Program \(Safe at Home\) Packet (<https://saccourt.ca.gov/civil/docs/cv-142s.pdf>). This packet includes the standard name change forms as well as the extra paperwork to request to file under seal.

If you would like to request a new birth certificate and that your old birth certificate be sealed, you will also need Attachment \(MC-025\). (<https://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/mc025.pdf>)

When you fill the forms out, use your current name and your Safe at Home address. If you have used more than one name in the past, include them as “aka” in any line asking for “previous name” (example: Jane Jones aka Jane Smith).

In all spaces asking for the proposed (new) name, you will instead write:

“Confidential on file with the Secretary of State’s Office per provisions of the Safe at Home Program pursuant to the provisions of the Address Confidentiality Program (Code of Civil Procedure Section 1277 (b)).”

Confidential Cover Sheet (NC-400) must be attached as the first page of every other document, to shield it and indicate to the filing clerk that it contains confidential information.

If you decide to request to file under seal, you will need to file three additional extra forms: NC-410 (Application to File Documents Under Seal in Name Change Proceeding); NC-420 (Declaration in Support of Application to File Documents under Seal in Name Change Proceeding); and NC-425 (Order on Application to File Documents under Seal in Name Change Proceeding).

Samples of all of these filled-out forms are attached to this guide.

4b. Assemble Documents for Filing

Make two copies of each court form (You will file three of each paper — the original and two copies). For Items 3 – 9, a Confidential Cover Sheet form (NC-400) must be attached as the first page of each and every copy of each and every document. It can help sort the pages to put a sticky note with the form number on each stack of documents.

Assemble your paperwork in the following order:

1. Court Letter from Safe At Home: 1 copy
2. Copy of Safe at Home card: 1 copy
3. Civil Case Cover Sheet form (CM-010): original +2 copies
4. Petition for Change of Name form (NC-100) and the Attachment to Petition for Change of Name form (NC-110) (and Attachment MC-025, if needed): original +2 copies
5. Order to Show Cause for Change of Name form (NC-120): original +2 copies
6. Decree Changing Name form (NC-130): original +2 copies

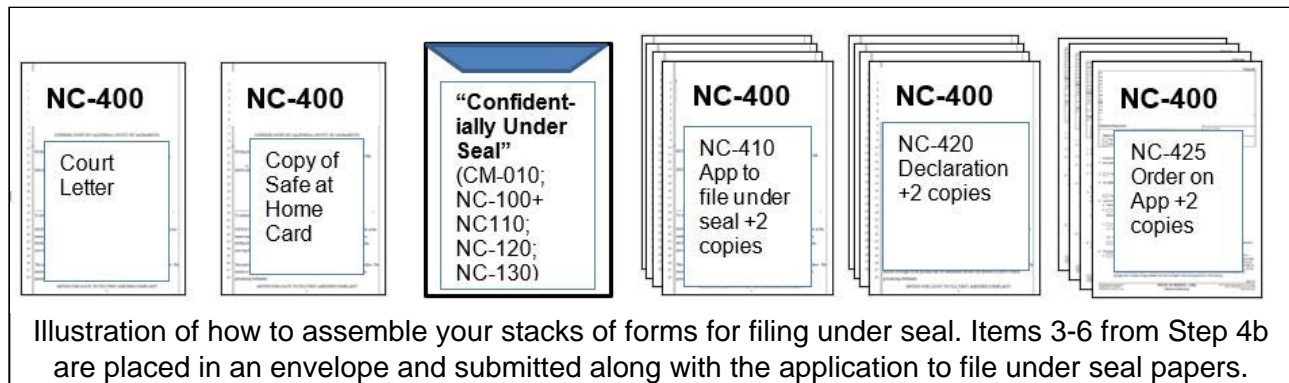

4c. Additional Steps when Filing Under Seal

Place Items 3 – 6 in a sealed envelope, with a completed Confidential Cover Sheet (form NC-400) on top marked “Conditionally Under Seal.”

Assemble the remaining documents:

- Application to File Documents Under Seal in Name Change Proceeding Under Address Confidentiality Program (Safe at Home) form (NC-410): original +2 copies
- Declaration in Support of Application to File Documents Under Seal in Name Change Proceeding Under Address Confidentiality Program (Safe at Home) form (NC-420): original +2 copies
- Order on Application to File Documents under Seal in Name Change Proceeding (NC-425): original +2 copies

5. File Your Court Forms

All completed documents should be submitted to the Hall of Justice Building, 813 Sixth St., Sacramento CA 95814, in Room 212 or the drop box in the lobby.

Tip: Unlike most name changes, you do NOT have to publish the Order to Show Cause in a newspaper.

6. Wait to Receive Approval or Denial of Permission to File Under Seal, if Requested

If you have requested to file under seal, the first decision the judge makes is whether to approve that request.

If refused: All paperwork will be returned to you, unfiled. You can then decide whether to re-file with a non-sealed application.

If you did not request to file under seal, or if the judge approves: The court clerk will assign you a hearing date (about six weeks from filing), write it on the Order to Show Cause (NC-120), and return one copy of your paperwork to you by mail.

7. Checking the Judge's Decision: Tentative Rulings and Hearing

TENTATIVE RULING: Checking the decision online the day before the hearing.

If you filed under seal: You cannot check online. You will get the Decree in the mail a few days after your hearing date.

If you did not file under seal, you can find out what the judge plans to decide (the “tentative ruling”) after 2 p.m. on the day before your hearing date. Log on to the court’s Case Information Portal Page (<https://prod-portal-sacramento-ca.journaltech.com/public-portal/>) to find the decision.

If the name change is tentatively denied, and you wish to try to change the judge’s mind, you must call the department by 4 p.m. the day before the hearing. Leave a message saying you want to appear. If you do not, the hearing will be cancelled and the Decree will be mailed to you.

On the hearing date, the judge will sign the Decree Changing Name (NC-130) granting or denying your name change. You will receive this order in the mail a few days later.

8. Send the Court Decree to the Safe at Home Program

If your name change is granted, send a certified copy of your court order to the Safe at Home program. Once the Safe at Home office receives it, they will create a new name certificate for you and send it back.

9. Update Records

Use the Decree and the new name certification from Safe at Home to change your name with Social Security, the DMV, and other required agencies.

Contact the agency in question to request special forms or procedures to keep the record change from being public. Here are some helpful links for doing that:

- Update your Social Security information. Visit the Social Security Administration website (<https://www.ssa.gov/personal-record/change-name>) for information.
- After you receive the updated Social Security card, contact the Department of Motor Vehicles Confidential Record Suppression Unit at (916) 657-7142 to learn how to update your records safely.
- If you were born in California, you may request to have your birth records amended through the Department of Public Health – Vital Records Office. For more information, please contact Vital Records at (916) 445-8494. If you were born in another state or country, you must inquire with that state or country’s Vital Records office about their procedure.
- Update educational or professional licenses or public records as necessary.

If you need a new Social Security number, that is a separate process. Read “New Numbers for Victims of Domestic Violence” (<https://www.ssa.gov/pubs/EN-05-10093.pdf>) for information about doing that.

Note that if you update a public record, such as a professional license or real estate title, it may create a public link between your new identity and your old name.

PETITION OF (Name of each petitioner): Sally Stalked

DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION TO FILE DOCUMENTS UNDER SEAL IN NAME CHANGE PROCEEDING UNDER ADDRESS CONFIDENTIALITY PROGRAM (SAFE AT HOME)

I (name): Sally Stalked

1. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this declaration. I am a participant in the Secretary of State's confidential name change program. I am seeking a name change (check all that apply):
☒ To avoid domestic violence.
☒ To avoid stalking.
☐ Because I am a victim of sexual assault.
☐ On behalf of (name): _____ who is a victim of sexual assault.

Facts showing that there is an overriding interest that overcomes the right of public access to the records in this name change proceeding are (specify):
I am the victim of domestic violence and am being stalked by my ex-husband. There is a strong overriding interest in preventing domestic violence and stalking. These interests override the public right to access records when the making of a record public would likely lead to domestic violence or stalking.

5. Facts showing that the overriding interest described in item 4 supports filing the documents in this name change proceeding under seal are (specify):
I am the victim of domestic violence, and am being stalked by my ex-husband, Sam Stalker. I separated from him in 2015, and since then, he has followed me to three different cities. He is a police officer, and uses his ability to search license records and other documents to find me wherever I move. On more than five different occasions he has mailed to me photographs of me that have been taken in various places around town, with the words, "I'm watching" written on them. He calls my phone using pre-paid disposable phones. The last time he called me, he threatened to kill me if I tried to move away. I have just moved to this city, and have not been located yet. If he finds me, I'm afraid he will kill me.

Enter the current name, Safe at Home PO Box information and phone number of the petitioner. If changing your own name, this is you.

Enter the county, address and branch of the court.

Enter the current name(s) of the person(s) whose names will be changed.

Enter the current name(s) of the person(s) whose names will be changed.

Check the reason(s) for seeking the name change.

For item 4, describe why public interest in access to the records is outweighed by the need to keep records confidential. If you need more space, use MC-025.

For item 5, describe the facts that support the overriding interest described in 4.

Declaration in Support of Application to File Documents Under Seal (NC-420) (page 1)

PETITIONER: Sally Stalked

Enter the current name(s) of the person(s) whose names will be changed.

6. Facts showing that there is a substantial probability that records in this name change proceeding are not sealed are (specify):
I have been stalked despite moving to three different cities, and have been sent threatening notes, telephone calls, and photographs each time I have moved. If my new city is discovered by my stalker, it is very likely that he will continue to stalk me, or even attack me violently.

Describe facts showing a substantial probability of what will happen if the records are not sealed.

7. Facts showing that an order sealing the records in this action is narrowly tailored to protect that overriding interest are (specify):
I have only requested the sealing of documents and records that would allow my stalker to readily identify me and determine what city I am now living in.

Describe why no narrower way of protecting the plaintiff exists other than sealing the records.

8. Facts showing that there is no less restrictive means to protect that overriding interest than filing the entire record under seal are (specify, including facts that show why the law requiring the court to keep the current name and the proposed name confidential, is not sufficient protection of that interest):
Even the creation of an index entry containing my original name would allow my stalker to identify me and locate the city I reside in. He is sophisticated in searching the court system, and has previously tracked me to multiple cities, where I was found because he concentrated his efforts to that city. Because of this, there exists there exists no less restrictive means of protecting my safety than allowing this entire record to be filed under seal.

Describe facts that show no less restrictive means exist.
