

SH@LL Self-Help

Self-Help at the Law Library (SH@LL)

Leer en español (<https://saclaw.org/services/shll-auto-ayuda/>)

Self-Help at the Law Library (SH@LL) provides free general legal information and basic legal help to people representing themselves. We can help you understand your options and—in certain cases—help you fill out forms and provide instructions for filing and next steps. We do not give legal advice or do legal research for patrons.

Who We Help

SH@LL can help people representing themselves:

- Who do not have a lawyer;
- Who live in Sacramento County and/or have a qualifying case in Sacramento County Superior Court; and
- Who are not deemed by the court to be vexatious litigants

If you have a lawyer, need a lawyer, or represent a business we cannot help you.

How It Works

1 Call To Request An Appointment

All assistance is provided by telephone appointment. To request an appointment, call:

?(916) 476-2731 (<tel:19164762731>)

Leave a detailed voicemail message including your name, contact number, case type and any other relevant information.

2 We Return Your Call & Pre-Screen Your Case For Eligibility

We will return your call within five (5) business days to discuss whether you are eligible for service and then schedule a longer phone appointment if your case is deemed eligible for service. If we determine you are not eligible for SH@LL service, we will refer you to the appropriate resource.

Please note that you will be pre-screened for eligibility before any telephone appointment is scheduled with SH@LL. SH@LL staff will determine eligibility on a case-by-case basis and reserves the right to refuse service. An otherwise qualifying case will not be eligible for an appointment if SH@LL staff determines that the case is too complex or requires specialized knowledge and training such that SH@LL staff will not be able to effectively assist with the case.

3 If Eligible You Will Have A SH@LL Consultation

If you are determined eligible, you will be scheduled for a longer call with a SH@LL staff member to provide free consultation on your case.
